

Activity Coordinator Certificate Program

The Alberta Seniors Communities & Housing Association (ASCHA) and Red Deer College (RDC) are proud to offer accessible, flexible and specific learning opportunities for individuals in the rapidly growing seniors' housing sector.

Delivered in an online format, the Activity Coordinator Certificate Program will provide you with skills for a successful career.

Develop knowledge and skills in:

- Recreation and Leisure
- Aging Processes
- Conflict Management
- Leadership
- Program Development
- Personal and Professional Development

The program will prepare you to:

- Become an effective activity coordinator
- Improve workplace quality
- Program activities for older adults
- Anticipate and meet client needs

The two-day Older Adult Certification course is part of the Activity Coordinator Program and is offered by the Physical Culture Association of Alberta.

Position yourself to move the seniors housing industry forward with a person-centred focus.

Course Delivery

- Online delivery
- Each course is 1 hour/week for 6 weeks
- Certificate requires completion of 7 core courses

Entrance Requirements

- No prerequisites or specific admission requirements
- Participants are expected to have some experience working in a seniors' housing site or other seniors' service environment

Program Cost (Approx.)

- $450 per course
- *ASCHA members (including employees) receive 25% discount

Scholarship

- The Laura Crawford Scholarship Award of $1000 is granted to one student each year.

For More Information

<http://rdc.ab.ca/continuing-education/programscourses/online-learning/health-community-service>

ASCHA
Ph: 780.439.6473
Email: ascha@ascha.com
Website: www.ascha.com

RDC School of Continuing Education
Ph: 403.356.4900
Email: continuingeducation@rdc.ab.ca
Website: www.rdc.ab.ca/continuingeducation